

Oratorical Contest - Optimist Club of Apple Valley

April 12, 2006

Nine local school girls and their families joined members of the Optimist Club of Apple Valley for dinner and to compete in the annual Optimist Club of Apple Valley Oratorical Contest at the Lil'Bit Country Café on April 12th. Each contestant presented their speech about the topic "My Future is Bright Because ,,"

Karishma Patel was awarded the First Place Medallion and will compete against winners from other Optimist Clubs in the area. The winner of the zone and area competitions will be sent to the district level with a chance to win a scholarship. Second place runner up Abigail Marim and third place runner up Alyssa Valenzuela were also awarded Medallions and all were presented with a Certificate of Appreciation.

Pictured from left to right: Optimist Club of Apple Valley Oratorical Contest Chairperson, Jack Brown; back row: Miranda Valenzuela, Rachel Beck, Paige Calamusa, Abigail Marim and Karishma Patel; front row: Michelle Arce, Hanna Valenzuela, Alyssa Valenzuela and Taylor Brown. Photo by Fritz Durfee

For more information about this and other Optimist Club activities contact Tina Olsen.

Optimist Club of Apple Valley

P. O. Box 1115 Apple Valley, CA 92307

PRESIDENT
Tina Olsen
760 246-8871

SECRETARY-TREASURER
Fritz Durfee
760 961-0044

